Before purchasing land that includes any residential premises (within the meaning of Division 1A of Part 8 of the Home Building Act 1989) built before 1985, a purchaser is strongly advised to consider the possibility that the premises may contain loose-fill asbestos insulation (within the meaning of Division 1A of Part 8 of the Home Building Act 1989). In particular, a purchaser should:

- (a) search the Register required to be maintained under Division 1A of Part 8 of the Home Building Act 1989, and
- (b) ask the relevant local council whether it holds any records showing that the residential premises contain loose-fill asbestos insulation.

For further information about loose-fill asbestos insulation (including areas in which residential premises have been identified as containing loose-fill asbestos insulation), contact NSW Fair Trading.

The purchaser agrees not to raise any requisition or make any objection, claim for compensation or rescind or terminate this agreement if, by the Completion date, the tenant has not vacated the property. In this event, the purchaser further agrees that it will not issue the vendor with a Notice to Complete and the parties hereby agree that the Completion date is extended to the date which is 2 business days after the date that the tenant has vacated the premises.
- (b) If the property is sold subject to an existing tenancy, the purchaser agrees that it will not be entitled to make any objection, requisition or claim for compensation and shall not be entitled to rescind, terminate or delay completion should the tenant exercise his rights pursuant to clause 100 of the Residential Tenancies Act 2010.
