To whom it may concern,

RE: Rental Appraisal – 150A Sixth Avenue, Inglewood 6052
Thinking of leasing this property?

As at today's date, and based on current market research, including recent comparable rental results, similar properties currently available, the estimated rental value for a 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom, 3 carport property is:

Estimated Weekly Rent: $1250-1300 per week

With vacancy rates remaining low and strong enquiry from well-qualified tenants, properties like this are leasing quickly. We currently have good tenants actively searching for homes in Inglewood, which further supports the demand for similar properties.

If you would like a full rental appraisal or more detail on the rental market in this area, please feel free to contact us, we're here to help you make an informed investment decision.
