What you need to know before buying a residential property

Before you buy a home, you should be aware of a range of issues that may affect that property and impose restrictions or obligations on you, if you buy it. This checklist aims to help you identify whether any of these issues will affect you. The questions are a starting point only and you may need to seek professional advice to answer some of them. You can find links to organisations and web pages that can help you learn more, by visiting consumer.vic.gov.au/duediligencechecklist.

Urban living

Moving to the inner city?

High density areas are attractive for their entertainment and service areas, but these activities create increased traffic as well as noise and odours from businesses and people. Familiarising yourself with the character of the area will give you a balanced understanding of what to expect.

Is the property subject to an owners corporation?

If the property is part of a subdivision with common property such as driveways or grounds, it may be subject to an owners corporation. You may be required to pay fees and follow rules that restrict what you can do on your property, such as a ban on pet ownership.

Growth areas

Are you moving to a growth area?

You should investigate whether you will be required to pay a growth areas infrastructure contribution.

Flood and fire risk

Does this property experience flooding or bushfire?

Properties are sometimes subject to the risk of fire and flooding due to their location. You should properly investigate these risks and consider their implications for land management, buildings and insurance premiums.

Rural properties

Moving to the country?

If you are looking at property in a rural zone, consider:

- Is the surrounding land use compatible with your lifestyle expectations? Farming can create noise or odour that may be at odds with your expectations of a rural lifestyle.
- Are you considering removing native vegetation? There are regulations which affect your ability to remove native vegetation on private property.
- Do you understand your obligations to manage weeds and pest animals?
- Can you build new dwellings?
- Does the property adjoin crown land, have a water frontage, contain a disused government road, or are there any crown licences associated with the land?

Is there any earth resource activity such as mining in the area?

You may wish to find out more about exploration, mining and quarrying activity on or near the property and consider the issue of petroleum, geothermal and greenhouse gas sequestration permits, leases and licences, extractive industry authorisations and mineral licences.

Soil and groundwater contamination

Has previous land use affected the soil or groundwater?

You should consider whether past activities, including the use of adjacent land, may have caused contamination at the site and whether this may prevent you from doing certain things to or on the land in the future.

Land boundaries

Do you know the exact boundary of the property?

You should compare the measurements shown on the title document with actual fences and buildings on the property, to make sure the boundaries match. If you have concerns about this, you can speak to your lawyer or conveyancer, or commission a site survey to establish property boundaries.

Planning controls

Can you change how the property is used, or the buildings on it?

All land is subject to a planning scheme, run by the local council. How the property is zoned and any overlays that may apply, will determine how the land can be used. This may restrict such things as whether you can build on vacant land or how you can alter or develop the land and its buildings over time.

The local council can give you advice about the planning scheme, as well as details of any other restrictions that may apply, such as design guidelines or bushfire safety design. There may also be restrictions – known as encumbrances – on the property's title, which prevent you from developing the property. You can find out about encumbrances by looking at the section 32 statement.

Are there any proposed or granted planning permits?

The local council can advise you if there are any proposed or issued planning permits for any properties close by. Significant developments in your area may change the local 'character' (predominant style of the area) and may increase noise or traffic near the property.

Safety

Is the building safe to live in?

Building laws are in place to ensure building safety. Professional building inspections can help you assess the property for electrical safety, possible illegal building work, adequate pool or spa fencing and the presence of asbestos, termites, or other potential hazards.

Building permits

Have any buildings or retaining walls on the property been altered, or do you plan to alter them?

There are laws and regulations about how buildings and retaining walls are constructed, which you may wish to investigate to ensure any completed or proposed building work is approved. The local council may be able to give you information about any building permits issued for recent building works done to the property, and what you must do to plan new work. You can also commission a private building surveyor's assessment.

Are any recent building or renovation works covered by insurance?

Ask the vendor if there is any owner-builder insurance or builder's warranty to cover defects in the work done to the property.

Utilities and essential services

Does the property have working connections for water, sewerage, electricity, gas, telephone and internet?

Unconnected services may not be available, or may incur a fee to connect. You may also need to choose from a range of suppliers for these services. This may be particularly important in rural areas where some services are not available.

Buyers' rights

Do you know your rights when buying a property?

The contract of sale and section 32 statement contain important information about the property, so you should request to see these and read them thoroughly. Many people engage a lawyer or conveyancer to help them understand the contracts and ensure the sale goes through correctly. If you intend to hire a professional, you should consider speaking to them before you commit to the sale. There are also important rules about the way private sales and auctions are conducted. These may include a cooling-off period and specific rights associated with 'off the plan' sales. The important thing to remember is that, as the buyer, you have rights.

Interest on late payments

Rates and charges not paid on or before the due date will be charged interest from the instalment dates. Interest will continue to accrue until the account is up to date. Penalty interest is charged at 10% per annum as provided in the Penalty Interest Rates Act 1983.

Allocation of payments

All payments will be credited in the following order: legal costs, interest charges, overdue rates and charges, current year rates and charges.

Rate capping

Council has complied with the Victorian Government's rate cap of 2.75%. The cap applies to the average annual increase of rates and charges. The rates and charges for your property may have increased or decreased by a different percentage amount for the following reasons:

- the valuation of your property relative to the valuation of other properties in the municipality
- the application of any differential rate by Council
- the inclusion of other rates and charges not covered by the Victorian Government's rate cap.

Fire Services Property Levy

Council must collect the Fire Services Property Levy on behalf of the Victorian Government. If the leviable land is rateable land, or if it is classed as residential but is not rateable land, you may apply for a waiver, deferral, or concession in accordance with sections 27 and 28 of the Fire Services Property Levy Act 2012.

A property is allocated an Australian Valuation Property Classification Code (AVPCC) to determine the land use classification for Fire Services Property Levy purposes.

Pension rebate

Ratepayers who hold a Pension Concession Card or certain cards issued by Department of Veterans' Affairs may be entitled to a rate rebate on their main place of residence. Application forms are available at whittlesea.vic.gov.au or by calling 9217 2170. Health care cards are not accepted.

Farm land and single farming enterprise

For a property to be rated as 'farm land', an application form must be submitted to Council for review. Application forms are available at the Council Offices or at whittlesea.vic.gov.au

You may also apply for a single farm enterprise exemption in accordance with section 9 of the Fire Services Property Levy Act 2012.

Objection to the valuation

The values shown on this notice were assessed as at 1 January 2024 by the Valuer General Victoria. Objections to the valuation of your property (including the AVPCC) can be made under section 17 of the Valuation of Land Act 1960. Objection must be lodged within two months of this notice or Supplementary Notice being issued and can be lodged online at ratingvaluationobjections.vic.gov.au

Regardless of an objection being lodged, the rates and charges as assessed must be paid by the due dates to avoid penalty interest. Any overpayments will be refunded. These valuations may be used by other authorities. The State Revenue Office uses the site value in assessing Land Tax. Contact the State Revenue Office for more information.

Objection to a rate or charge

You can object to a rate or charge by appealing to the County Court under section 184 of the Local Government Act 1989. Any appeal must be lodged within 60 days of the date of issue of this notice. You may only appeal on one or more of the following grounds:

- that the land is not rateable land (this is not applicable to special rates)
- that the rate or charge assessment was calculated incorrectly
- that the person rated is not liable to be rated.

Change of name/address

It is the responsibility of the owner/s to immediately notify Council in writing of any changes of name and/or address for this property.

Waste vouchers

Vouchers are not transferable or for commercial use – the resident must be present when using vouchers. Proof of address identification is required when presenting vouchers.
