Land and Business (Sale and Conveyancing) Act 1994 section 13A

Land and Business (Sale and Conveyancing) Regulations 2010 regulation 17

Before you buy a home there are a number of things that you should investigate and consider. Though it may not be obvious at the time, there could be matters that may affect your enjoyment of the property, the safety of people on the property or the value of the property.

The following questions may help you to identify if a property is appropriate to purchase. In many cases the questions relate to a variety of laws and standards. These laws and standards change over time, so it is important to seek the most up to date information. Various government agencies can provide up to date and relevant information on many of these questions. To find out more, Consumer and Business Services recommends that you check the website: www.cbs.sa.gov.au

Consider having a professional building inspection done before proceeding with a purchase. A building inspection will help you answer some of the questions below.

The questions have been categorised under the headings Safety, Enjoyment and Value, but all of the issues are relevant to each heading.

Safety

- Is there asbestos in any of the buildings or elsewhere on the property eg sheds and fences?

- Does the property have any termite or other pest infestations? Is there a current preventive termite treatment program in place? Was the property treated at some stage with persistent organochlorins (now banned) or other toxic termiticides?
- Has fill been used on the site? Is the soil contaminated by chemical residues or waste?
- Does the property use cooling towers or manufactured warm water systems? If so, what are the maintenance requirements?

Enjoyment

- Does the property have any stormwater problems?
- Is the property in a flood prone area? Is the property prone to coastal flooding?
- Does the property have an on-site wastewater treatment facility such as a septic tank installed? If so, what are the maintenance requirements? Is it compliant?
- Is a sewer mains connection available?
- Are all gutters, downpipes and stormwater systems in good working order and in good condition?
- Is the property near power lines? Are there any trees on the property near power lines? Are you considering planting any trees? Do all structures and trees maintain the required clearance from any power lines?
- Are there any significant trees on the property?
- Is this property a unit on strata or community title? What could this mean for you? Is this property on strata or community title? Do you understand the restrictions of use and the financial obligations of ownership? Will you have to pay a previous owner's debt or the cost of planned improvements?
- Is the property close to a hotel, restaurant or other venue with entertainment consent for live music? Is the property close to any industrial or commercial activity, a busy road or airport etc that may result in the generation of noise or the emission of materials or odours into the air?

Note -

The question relates to information that the council for the area in which the land is situated may hold. If the council answers "YES" to the question, it will provide a description of the nature of each development approved in respect of the land. The purchaser may then obtain further details from the council (on payment of any fee fixed by the council). However, it is expected that the ability to supply further details will vary considerably between councils.

A "YES" answer to paragraph (a) of the question may indicate that a potentially contaminating activity has taken place at the land (see sections 103C and 103H of the Environment Protection Act 1993) and that assessments or remediation of the land may be required at some future time.

It should be noted that –

- (a) the approval of development by a council does not necessarily mean that the development has taken place;
- (b) the council will not necessarily be able to provide a complete history of all such development that has taken place at the land.

I certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief the information provided above is correct.

Advisory Note 1

Allotment boundaries will not be certified by Council. The onus of ensuring that the building is sited as illustrated on the approved plans is the responsibility of the owner. This may necessitate a survey being carried out by a licensed land surveyor.

Advisory Note 3

If there is an intention to clear native vegetation on the land at any time, the applicant should consult the Native Vegetation Council to determine relevant requirements under the Native Vegetation Act 1991 and its Regulations. Note that 'clearance' means any activity that could cause any substantial damage to native plants, including cutting down and removing plants, burning, poisoning, slashing of understorey, removal or trimming of branches, severing roots, drainage and reclamation of wetlands, and in some circumstances grazing by animals. Note regulation 57(7) allows the relevant authority issuing the notice to specify any additional stage of building work for which notice must be given to the council under regulation 93.

Where a building certifier is issuing the building consent the use of this regulation is to inform the council of stages of work when a notification should be provided and an inspection may occur at the council's discretion. If applicable, notifications specified under 57(7) are therefore intended to be in addition to mandatory notifications and any notifications specified by council under 93(1)(b) or (c) when issuing the final Development Approval.

BUILDING OCCUPATION/COMPLETION

Building work Farm building

Building classification 7B - Building that is used for storage, or display of goods or produce for sale by wholesale
A Certificate of Occupancy issued under section 152 is required for this building before it can be occupied: Yes
The Certificate of Occupancy will be issued by: The council

Building work Accessible toilet building

Building classification 10A - Open or private garage,shed etc

A Certificate of Occupancy issued under section 152 is required for this building before it can be occupied: No

Note section 152 of the Act and regulation 103, requires a Certificate of Occupancy to be issued before a building can be occupied, except in respect of a Class 10 building under the Building Code (regulation 103(1)).

Note, despite a YES being indicated above, a Certificate of Occupancy is not required for a Class 1a building if this building is completed between 16 December 2021 and 30 June 2022 (inclusive). Completion of a building will be signalled by the receipt of the Statement of Compliance required for that building, or the final Statement of Compliance where multiple statements are required. Note this deferral applies to Class 1a buildings only.

Section 152(2) of the Act states that 'A certificate of occupancy will be issued by council', noting that section 154 allows a building certifier to exercise this power should they elect to, where either: the building is owned occupied by the Crown or an agency or instrumentality of the Crown; or if they issued the building rules consent for that building.

The authority above – either building certifier or council – will therefore be responsible for issuing this Certificate following receipt of the Statement of Compliance and other documentation as required to provide assurance that the building is suitable for occupation.

Note the default authority for issuing this Certificate remains the council, should there be no building certifier or if the certifier elects not to issue this Certificate, noting that a council may still elect not to issue a certificate, if the council is not satisfied the building is suitable for occupation under section 152(6) of the Act.

Electricity and Telecommunications Infrastructure - Building Restrictions and Statutory Easements (including those related to gas, water and sewage)

Building restrictions

It is an offence under section 86 of the Electricity Act 1996 to erect a building or structure within a prescribed distance of aerial or underground powerlines. In some, but not all, cases approval may be obtained from the Technical Regulator. Generally, however, land owners must not build, or alter a building or structure, with the result that any part of the resulting building or structure is within the minimum clearance distance required from certain types of powerlines. These building limitations are set out in the Electricity (General) Regulations 2012 regulations 81 and 82. Purchasers intending to redevelop the property to be purchased should therefore be aware that the restrictions under the Electricity Act and Regulations may affect how, or if, they are able to redevelop the property.

In addition, if a building or structure is erected in proximity to a powerline of an electricity entity in contravention of the Electricity Act, the entity may seek a court order:

- a) requiring the person to take specified action to remove or modify the building or structure within a specified period;
- b) for compensation from the person for loss or damage suffered in consequence of the contravention; and/or
- c) for costs reasonably incurred by the entity in relocating the powerline or carrying out other work.

Contact the Office of the Technical Regulator in DEM on 8226 5500 for further details.

Statutory easements

Statutory easements for purposes such as (and without limitation) electricity, telecommunications, gas, water and sewage, may also exist, but may not be registered or defined on the title for the land.

Separate from the above building restrictions, South Australia's electricity supply and transmission businesses have statutory easements over land where part of the electricity distribution or transmission system was on, above or under the land as at particular dates specified by legislation.

This notice does not necessarily imply that any statutory or other easement exists.

However, where in existence, statutory easements may provide these organisations and businesses (identified in the relevant legislation) with the right of entry, at any reasonable time, to operate, repair, examine, replace, modify or maintain their equipment, to bring any vehicles or equipment on the land for these purposes, and to install, operate and carry out work on any pipelines, electricity or telecommunications cables or equipment that may be incorporated in, or attached to, their equipment (For example, see Clause 2 of Schedule 1 of the Electricity Corporations (Restructuring and Disposal) Act 1999; section 48A of the Electricity Act 1996).

For further clarification on these matters, please contact the relevant organisations or businesses, such as SA Power Networks' Easements Branch on telephone 8404 5897 or 8404 5894.

If you intend to excavate, develop or subdivide land, it is suggested that you first lodge a 'Dial Before you Dig' enquiry. Dial Before You Dig is a free referral service that provides information on the location of underground infrastructure. Using the Dial Before you Dig service (<https://1100.com.au>) may mitigate the risk of injury or expense resulting from inadvertent interference with, damage to, or requirement to relocate infrastructure.

Land Tax Act 1936 and Regulations thereunder

Agents should note that the current owner will remain liable for any additional charge accruing due before the date of this certificate which may be assessed on the land and also that the purchaser is only protected in respect of the tax for the financial year for which this certificate is issued. If the change of ownership will not occur on or before the 30th June, another certificate should be sought in respect of the next financial year or requests for certificate should not be made until after 30th June.

Animal and Plant Control (Agriculture Protection and other purposes) Act 1986 and Regulations

Agents should note that this legislation imposes a responsibility on a landholder to control and keep controlled proclaimed plants and particular classes of animals on a property.

Information should be obtained from:

- The vendor about the known presence of proclaimed plants or animals on the property including details which the vendor can obtain from records held by the local animal and plant control board
- The local animal and plant control board or the Animal and Plant Control Commission on the policies and priorities relating to the control of any serious proclaimed plants or animals in the area where the property is located.
